SUPREME COURT DECISION HAS FAR-REACHING IMPLICATIONS

● Gotcha this time says Melbourne Croatia's Alan Davidson as he robs Wollongong's English star Trevor Francis. But Francis had the last laugh. See PAGE 5 for the story.

STATE LEAGUE ROUND THIRTEEN — UNLUCKY FOR MOST

IN a day of upsets, none of the top nine clubs in the State League could manage a win.

Ringwood City, Fawkner and Western Suburbs all pulled off surprise results.

For FULL STORY see pages 8 and 9

MR Justice Nathan's decision, handed down in the Supreme Court last week that Preston Makedonia's use of Connor Reserve breaches the land's zoning could have far-reaching consequences for other sports clubs using public land.

The decision was based on the fact the club had a 20-year lease, the ground was enclosed, admission was charged and that the building of a grandstand, press and ticket boxes gave the impression that the public was excluded.

Preston Makedonia has occupied Connor Reserve since 1978, and the Preston Council has helped the build ticket boxes and a pavillion.

The Ministry of Planning granted use and development permits for the Western stand, subject to certain conditions, in 1987.

But local residents who objected to parking and traffic problems in the vicinity of the ground appealed to the Administrative Appeals Tribunal.

After hearing the appeal in October, the Tribunal ruled late in December that no permits should be issued, because the traffic and parking problems had not been solved.

This led to Preston Council and the club's joint and unsuccessful appeal to the Supreme Court last week.

The Council and the club have 28 days in which to appeal to the full bench of the Supreme Court, but Preston Makedonia's solicitor, former president John Branov says he is "quietly confident" that the club will be allowed to stay.

A spokesman for South Melbourne Hellas soccer club said that his club was aware of problems surrounding the use of public land and as a result it now left the ground open.

"We only keep the big gates locked to prevent people driving their cars into the ground," he said, "but other than that the public is free to walk through."

ALL THE JUNIOR RESULTS AND TABLES — PAGES 12,13

FAWKNER coach Mike Lynn is a bit upset that his club keeps being referred to as one of the last of the big spenders.

"Some of you journalists," he said to me last week, "like to write about Fawknor trying to buy success, but it isn't true."

"Far from that being the case, I can prove to you that we are actually ahead on our transfer deals this season."

"So far we have parted with the following players:

John Paul Di Ceccho to Essendon City $2000
Bruno Cozzella to Caulfield City $5000
Caesar Fattore to Caulfield City $5000
Peter Bordignon to Heidelberg $7000
Peter Verechia to Springvale City $2000
Fab Mancinelli to Green Gully $1000
Total $22,000

"We have bought:

Eddie Campbell from Juventus $8000
Scott Fraser from Heidelberg $6000
Dean Hennessy from Box Hill $3000
George Traikovski from Sunbury $1000
Joe Angele from E. Brunswick $1600
Total $19,600

"That means we are showing a profit of $2400 to date — so much for being big spenders!"

"In addition to that, Kees Storm came on a free transfer from Maribymong."

Fawknor has now put Jed Stenson on the transfer list and has suspended Kiwi international goalkeeper Richard Wilson for disciplinary reasons.

WHO do you think compiles the NSL league ladder each week?

If you thought it was the NSL office in Sydney, then you would have been wrong.

It is we journalists who do that task. Sunday night by Sunday night and that's where the fun comes in.

I bought three morning newspapers on Monday morning and they all differed. Which one was correct, I asked myself?

Well, there's only one way to find out, I'll ring the NSL office in Sydney. This was the conversation:

LS: "Hello, is that the NSL? Can I speak to Mr Peter Russell please?"

NSL: He's in Melbourne!

(Thinks... that's a great start.) Well, is Maureen there?

● Tony Dorigo

No, she left on Friday. Oh, who are you then? I'm Giotto, and I'm the one here.

I see. Could you please fax me the up to date NSL ladder as soon as possible?

Ladder... what's that? You know, the standing of clubs after last week-end's round.

Oh! I think Mr Russell did something about that, but I don't know where he put it."

That was the end of that conversation, and I never did get that fax. However, you will find the ladder on page four, and I won't spoil the fun by telling you how I got it.

How many Markovski's are there? Everybody of course is aware of John, the brilliant George Cross player.

And a lot would know about elder brother Tom, who transferred from Georgie to Western Suburbs early in the season.

But have you heard of young Jim the whistler? Yes, the youngest Markovski is a very promising referee.

A NEW name cropped up in the Thomastown team sheet last week.

Kevin Rogers is a newcomer to Victoria, but he's certainly no novice.

He's here on a temporary visa from Wales, where he plays for Merthyr Tydfil, the club that set European football circles buzzing when it beat Italian First Division club Atalanta away from home in the first round of this year's European Cup-winners Cup.

What was tiny Merthyr of the Midland division of the English Southern League doing in Europe anyway?

For that matter, what was Atalanta doing in the Cup-winners Cup?

Napoli did the Italian double in 1987, so as beaten finalist Atalanta took Napoli's place in the Cup-winners'.

And Merthyr beat Newport County in the two-legged Welsh Cup to qualify in the same competition.

Kevin Rogers scored the goal that beat Atalanta in the Cup... alas, gallant Merthyr lost the second leg and proceeded to no further.

Brisbane Lions fans would be interested to know that English International Bob Latchford, who guested for the Lions, is one of Merthyr's twin strikers.

Of course, Merthyr was allowed to play in Europe even though it plays in an English League, but is Welsh.

The Welsh Cup attracts English clubs like Shrewsbury, Hereford and Kidderminster Harriers,

The irony of that situation is that at the end of last season, Dorigo left Aston Villa, which had been relegated and went to Chelsea.

Now Chelsea has gone down, and you've guessed it, Villa has won promotion.

SNIPPETS

but if they won the Cup they would still be barred from Europe.

IT has always been a source of amazement to me that our sports editors are so obsessed with Craig Johnston to the exclusion of all the other expatriate Australians who are making their mark in Europe.

Johnston is placed on a pedestal and is often referred to as our most successful Australian. Rubbish.

For me, that accolade belongs to Tony Dorigo, who played once for Adelaide City at the tender age of 15, the year before the NSL was born, made his own way to England at that time and entered Aston Villa's apprentice school.

Out of thirty-odd there, he was the only one to become a full-time professional and he forced his way into the hardest League in the world without any fanfare.

He was actually selected to play against Scotland, but stood down out of loyalty to his club Chelsea, which was engaged in the relegation play-off with Middlesbrough.

A MR Ken Washington wants me to tell everyone that he is not the anonymous punter who bid $500 for that Charlton shirt.

Mr Washington paid $300 for a shirt and paid on the spot and I'm happy to acknowledge the fact.

BOBBY Robson's England squad for the European championships this month is as follows:

Goalkeepers: Peter Shilton and Chris Woods.
Defenders: Gary Stevens, Viv Anderson, Kenny Sansom, Tony Dorigo, Mark Wright, Dave Watson, Tony Adams.

Midfielders: Bryan Robson, Neil Webb, Pater Reid, Trevor Steven, Glen Hoddle, Steve McMahon.

Forwards: Peter Beardsley, John Barnes, Mark Hateley, Gary Lineker, Chris Waddle.

GIVE THIS BOY A GO!

Eddie deserves a Chance with Socceroos!

SOCCEEROO coach Frank Arok will announce the names of the 20 players he hopes to take to the Olympic Games in Seoul and five stand-bys on June 9 and it is very likely that our one and only world class player will be missing.

His name has become synonymous with scoring goals — the most difficult thing to do in soccer — and he is now in a position where he can almost write his own cheque.

French champions Monaco, who bought Mark Hateley and Glenn Hoddle, are interested in Krncevic and it's possible he will move there for $2m within a few weeks.

So why has his name not been put forward for inclusion in the national Olympic squad?

There is no doubt he wants to play for Australia. He has said so often enough over the past year or so. He has gone to the trouble of approaching Arok to volunteer his services.

Krnecvic is not looking for personal glory. He has had more than enough of that since he moved to Europe a few years ago.

He is not doing it for financial gain. On that score his future is assured.

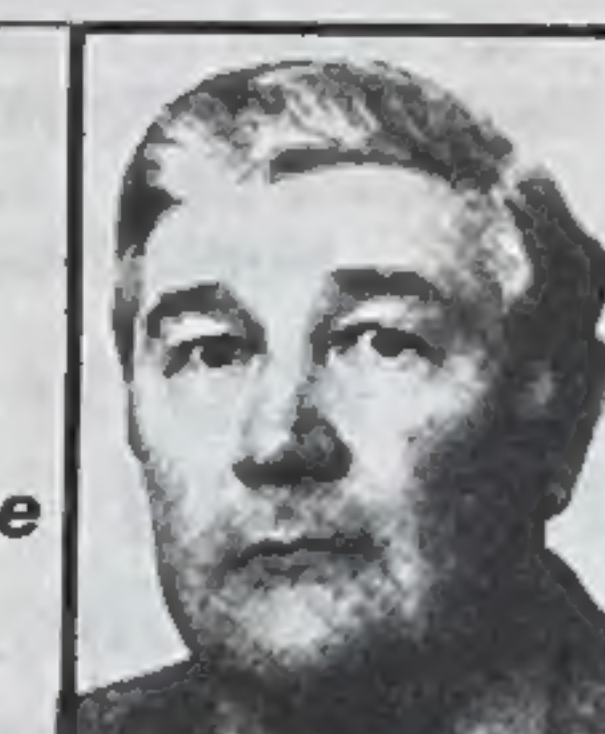

He is doing it out of national pride. Krncevic could have taken out citizenship papers almost anywhere in Europe and he would be welcomed because of his talent, which is well appreciated there if not here.

The Melbourne-born star has no intention of being anything other than Australian, unlike others who found the lure of greener pastures abroad too strong to resist.

In my opinion that kind of loyalty deserves reward and just think what his inclusion would do for the Socceroos.

A world-class striker leading the attack would undoubtedly raise the morale of his teammates. His partnership with David Mitchell could be devastating.

Both are big, strong, quick and dangerous.

By BOB BRIAN of the Melbourne Herald

Australia has never before had the opportunity to put such a lethal double on the field.

In the air or on the ground they have the ability to beat defences. Their experience in Europe would be a bonus that could tip the balance in Australia's favour when things got tough, as they surely will.

Of course there is still time for Arok to give the inclusion of Krncevic careful consideration.

Although he listed 30 names for pre-Bicentennial Gold Cup training, he is not tied to those players when he names his Olympic squad.

It would be a mistake to ignore Krncevic. He is what Australia has been searching for since Arok took over as coach — a consistent goalscorer. Anyone who can take on the best defences in Europe and come out of it with a reputation for being a deadly foe is a must for our Olympic squad.

He cannot be allowed to sit around idle during September when we could have use of his talents. It's true that he and Arok had a falling out, otherwise he might have played in the 1986 World Cup qualifying games.

Whether that row has been "sorted out" I don't know. But there are bigger things at stake than the feelings of two men.

Krnecvic wants to play for Australia, always has, and is prepared to put himself under the instruction of Arok.

I feel that Arok should welcome Krncevic back to the fold for the sake of Australia's bid to put on a good show in Seoul.

● Eddie Krncevic... loyalty deserves reward.

Preston spoils City's chances

MAN OF THE MATCH:

AURELIO VIDMAR

in the 33rd minute with a flying header from Steve Smith after a cross by John Stewart.

Five minutes later Aurelio Vidmar slammed a long kick onto the Preston cross bar from a neat pass by Sergio Melta. But that was as close as City came to scoring again.

The home side struggled to keep Preston out in the first half but brought more energy to the game in the second.

Both teams came back on field showing a readiness to get physical and, by midway through the term, Preston's George Petrov and City's Sergio Melta had been shown the yellow card.

A dazed Ian Roodhouse from Preston was taken from the ground in the 54th minute with a cut eye and damaged nose after a clash in his team's goal area.

Preston continued to push Adelaide City but a tight defence left the visitors cheated of any satisfaction.

City coach Zoran Matic could not remember when his team had played so poorly and conceded the picture did not look good for the play-offs.

"The biggest trouble is we didn't play well," he said.

"We were outplayed in midfield. We just could not control it."

Preston's new coach Andon Donchevski arrived in Adelaide from Yugoslavia early in the morning to watch his team under Preston's fill-in coach Ron Campbell.

Donchevski said it was too early to assess the standards of his players but was pleased with his reception.

Hunter steals the show

MAN OF THE MATCH:

ALAN HUNTER

Graham Arnold went up, with Bertogna diverting the ball into his own net.

Early play was untidy from each side and during the first half both goalkeepers were called upon for magnificent saves.

Apia's Tony Pezzano made a spectacular dive to hold a Clinch shot following a Hunter free kick while Tony Franken's reflexes were unbelievably sharp as he tipped a well aimed Charlie Yankos lob over the crossbar.

With Croatia lifting its game after the break, Apia further lost out when its midfielder Peter Tredinnick was sent off for a foul on Ivan Petkovic only six minutes after he had replaced Tony Parison.

The big fellow played superbly, directing play throughout and was always on the job with his strong left foot and supremacy in the air.

Although play was often closely fought on a sodden and very bumpy surface, Croatia's team work and individual efforts were superior on the day.

It was strange to see a player with the qualities of Apia's left midfielder Jean Paul de Marigny struggling to find his form.

The vital goal came 10 minutes from half time when Croatia midfielder Shane Clinch delivered an in-swinging free kick.

ST GEORGE SINKS TO FOOTSCRAY

FOOTSCRAY 2 (Spink 18th, Bozinovski 56th) ST GEORGE 1 (Hagan 85th)

ST George sank closer to relegation after losing its ninth game of the season 2-1 to Footscray at Schintler Reserve.

Footscray had enough chances to win by a far bigger margin but ended up hanging on to the result after St George snatched a goal out of the blue five minutes from the end.

Warren Spink, who had scored in each of the past four games, kept up his strike rate by opening the score after 18 minutes, latching on to a cross from Ken Murphy, dummying past a player, and hitting a shot to the far corner of the net.

But Spink ended the match as a passenger as a thigh injury restricted his movement.

Footscray had earlier brought on Bill Lazopoulos for Oscar Crino, another player who had gone into the game carrying an injury.

Footscray increased its lead in the 56th minute when Gary Van Egmond finished off a run by pushing the ball to Vlado Bozinovski who then hit an angled shot past Mike Gibson for his first goal of the season.

MAN OF THE MATCH:
WARREN SPINK

Four minutes later, Drago Deankovic broke clear and looked set to put the game beyond reach but Gibson made an excellent save.

With 11 minutes to go, Spink missed an easy goal when he hit a rebound wide after Gibson had carried the initial shot from Milan Dimoski.

St George, whose only shots at goal had come from long range efforts, scored unexpectedly from its first corner of the game in the 85th minute when Kevin Hagan headed in from Zoran Ilic's kick.

The victory keeps alive Footscray's slim chances of making the top five but the team appears to have serious injury worries for next week's game away at Wollongong.

John seals Sunshine victory

MAN OF THE MATCH:
JOHN MARKOVSKI

A SPECTACULAR late goal by John Markovski sealed Sunshine George Cross' 2-0 victory over Brisbane Lions at Chaplin Reserve.

Markovski's goal came in the 85th minute when he controlled a through ball from central defender John Waddell.

He weaved between defenders before smashing an unstoppable shot past goalkeeper Jason Kearton.

Until that goal, the Lions looked like they might snatch a point.

Nick Meredith and Grant Lightbown both had their chances to level the score butshot wide.

Brisbane Lions coach Juan Cutillas attributed his team's defeat to the home side's superior finishing.

"We played well today but they took their chances and we didn't, he said after the game.

Sunshine George Cross, which last week-end displayed scintillating form to beat champions Apia 3-1, began the match without key defenders Andrew Marth and John Campelj.

The team settled down after a shaky start when Shaun Parton leapt high at the far post in the 34th minute to head a spectacular goal from a Markovski corner.

Brisbane Lions' best player was goalkeeper Kearton who saved awkward shots from Markovski and Don McLaren.

Brisbane's new signing Frank Cole finished the game with a thigh injury.

SOUTH SALVAGES DRAW

MARCONI 1 (Farina 9th) SOUTH MELBOURNE 1 (Postecoglou 75th)

A SECOND-half goal when Angie Postecoglou headed home after being found free on the far post by a fine Paul Wade cross enabling South Melbourne to draw 1-1 with Marconi at Marconi stadium.

Marconi must have known at half time that it was not to be its afternoon as it was denied on at least 10 occasions during the first period by clearances off the line.

The Fairfielders went ahead as early as the 9th minute when Wheatley played an early ball through for Frank Farina who controlled superbly with the chest before beating Bruce McLaren with a clinical finish.

The first half was totally dominated by Marconi and saw South leaving the field a dejected squad. But they came out in the second and lifted their game, finally being rewarded in the 75th minute with Postecoglou's goal which was the result of some poor marking in the Marconi defence.

MAN OF THE MATCH:
STEVE BLAIR

Full marks to South for the draw but, with half an ounce of luck, Marconi would have been five or six up after 45 minutes.

South Melbourne's Steve Blair was a tower of strength for his club and saved several desperate situations, once clearing a Farina shot off the line.

"We had our chances in the first half and should have put them away," Mariani said.

"Our first half was as good as any we have produced this season but we died in the second.

"We played a mid-week game and that may have been a reason for the lads tiring in the last 20 minutes."

LATE GOAL HELPS WOLLONGONG

MELBOURNE CROATIA 0 WOLLONGONG 1 (Francis 89th)

A LAST-minute goal by former English international Trevor Francis lifted Wollongong to a 1-0 victory over Melbourne Croatia at Olympic Park.

It was the second goal for Francis in two matches since his late arrival from England last week.

Croatia had held the edge in the second half until a crossfield free kick from Mike Hollifield landed at Francis's feet just inside the penalty area on the right side.

With a simple low drive he gave Wollongong the victory which had been so close in the first half before Croatia started its fightback.

The Wollongong defence, normally the strongest part of the team, looked decidedly shaky when Croatia strikers Dale White and Paul Lewis pressured during the second half.

But Lewis wasted the best of his chances and White, after a brilliant turn, foiled by goalkeeper Warwick Young at close range in the 82nd minute.

The first half was con-

Double delight for Sydney Olympic

SYDNEY OLYMPIC 2 (Phillips 13th, Kosmina 41st pen.) BRUNSWICK 0

SYDNEY Olympic had double delight in its 2-0 win over last-placed Brunswick at the Sydney Football Stadium.

It was its first victory in five matches at the new stadium and the success was sweeter because Brunswick is now handled by former Olympic coach Manfred Schaefer.

I'm specially delighted to get that win over Manfred and his verbal broadside at the club during the week proved a great motivator," Sydney Olympic coach Eddie Thomson said.

"When he said Marshall Soper and Peter Raskopoulos were Olympic, I bit my tongue and decided to let the players do the talking on the field."

Olympic busted Brunswick off the ball in the early stages and the 14th minute goal by Gary Phillips did not come as a surprise.

Phillips ran onto a loose ball just inside the penalty area and curled his shot into the far corner of the net.

John Kosmina added the second from a penalty three minutes before half time after Terry Patalis had been punished by keeper Peter Laumets.

Olympic striker Grant Lee and his Brunswick counterpart Charlie Egan provided nearly all of the attack, with both players hitting the goalposts and crossbar.

Lee fired shots from 20 metres after strong runs which carried him through lazy Brunswick tackling while Egan was a constant worry with his sharpness and refusal to give up.

But Olympic held too many guns on the day and always had the measure of the visitors, continually stringing passes together to keep Brunswick on the defensive.

"The big thing for us was that we didn't collapse after the first goal," Schaefer said.

MY VICTORIAN ALL STAR XI

GOALS are what counts most in soccer, and it is the goalscorers who usually provide the most thrills.

So it has been this season with Warren Spink of Footscray JUST and Paul Trimboli of SM Hellas stealing the limelight.

Both must be strong contenders for major player awards and as I set about choosing a Victorian all-star eleven according to performances so far, Spink and Trimboli are the first choices.

After last weekend's round Spink had a total of 10 goals, only two less than NSL top scorer Frank Farina of Marconi. Trimboli may have scored only five, but he has set up many others for teammates.

Both strikers were seen at their best in the recent South v Footscray confrontation that ended in a 1-1 draw.

Their respective markers, Gary van Egmond and Manny Anezakis were thoroughly frazzled by the end of the day.

Both are former winners of the Weinstein Medal as Victorian Junior Player of the Year, Spink in 1982 whilst with Doveton and Trimboli in 1985 whilst he was with Brighton.

In 1986, Trimboli was voted best player in the Northern Division of the National Youth League, whilst with the Institute of Sport.

I have heard supporters refer to both of them as "little geniuses".

You really can't go past that description.

As for the remainder of the all-stars, let's start with the defence.

None of the goalkeepers has been particularly outstanding, although each of them has had his good days.

I therefore go for Jeff Olver, as he has had the advantage of strutting his stuff on the international stage as well.

The placement of the defenders is in the orthodox formation from right to left for the sake of simplicity, although with the emphasis on man-marking, they do not necessarily line up this way.

Gary van Egmond usually plays as a man-marker in the middle, but I have him at right back.

He is the fastest defender in the NSL, certainly the most improved and he is still getting better.

Frank Arok has acknowledged his talents by including him in the Soccerroo squad for the Bicentennial Gold Cup in July.

Van Egmond played in the NSL for Blacktown and APIA before joining Footscray JUST and also went to Holland with Mike

By LAURIE SCHWAB of The Age

Petersen of Juventus for trials with clubs there.

In the centre-back positions I have Steve Blair of SM Hellas and Shaun Parton of George Cross.

Both are as steady as oak trees, all-conquering in the air and dangerous when they attack corners or free-kicks near goal.

Parton is very much the motivating force of the George Cross team and Blair never plays a bad game.

To score seven goals from full-back, albeit some of them have been penalties and so, naturally, Angie Postecoglou is at left back in our all-stars.

Along with van Egmond and Trimboli, he has been rewarded for his good form by being included in the Soccerroo squad.

Postecoglou and Manny Anezakis, incidentally, are the longest-serving members in the Hellas squad, having been with the club since they were kids.

Steve Tasios was hampered by injuries after joining South from Heidelberg, and it has taken until this season to develop further the great potential he showed in his first senior season.

Now he terrorises midfield opponents with his strong running, his close skills and his ability to score goals.

To see Tasios in full flight through the middle, with Postecoglou steaming down the left in support is one of the necessities why Hellas fans are flocking back to Middle Park.

Majestic Oscar Crino of Footscray JUST and his henchman Ken Murphy are, like Spink and Trimboli automatic selections.

Crino can do, with his skill, his poise and his vision what no other midfielder in Australia can do and he also scores goals.

Murphy remains one of the most energetic engine-room men in the business.

He wins the ball, he gets involved in everything, he backs up his fellow midfielder and this year, for the first time in his career, we saw him filling in admirably as a sweeper.

John Stewart, the former Brisbane Lions captain, a long with Zoran Tasevski has been in good form for Preston Makedonia, so he gets the remaining midfield position.

Not only does he rival Murphy for his work-rate and commitment, but he also has scored some vital goals and he is highly effective when used as a striker.

So there we have it, my 1988 Victorian all-star eleven, according to performances so far!

LEADERS STUMBLE ON HEAVY PITCHES

● RINGWOOD SHOCKS CAULFIELD ● CAN NORTHCOTE RECOVER?

LAST week we posed the question, is Northcote City a pretender or a contender, and we promptly got our answer, as Northcote went down yet again, this time to improving Fawkner.

Northcote's haul over the last four weeks has been a mere one point out of a possible eight, hardly the sort of form you would expect from a budding champion and the astute Roy McLaren must be wondering just what he has to do to get his team back on track.

He also has two hard games coming up (not that there are any easy games this year), in Green Gully away this week and then the home clash with leader Heidelberg next week as the League reaches the halfway point.

Not that Northcote was the only leading club to fail last week.

Round 13 proved to be unlucky for all the championship aspirants to such an extent that not one of the top nine on the ladder won.

You had to go down to number 10 on the greasy pole to find a winner in Bulleen as all the clubs in Reilly's cellar redoubled their efforts to scramble clear.

Bulleen put up a mighty effort in the miserable conditions to win at Oakleigh and its reward was to remain in tenth spot, where it began the day.

The situation in the bottom half of the ladder is so tense that if a club wins it is lucky to stay where it is but if it loses it could tumble down three places.

Bulleen's wasn't the only praiseworthy effort of the round by any means. The shock of the week-end had to be Ringwood's defeat of Caulfield City. Caulfield had overwhelmed Northcote the week before in a display that had most of us reaching for our store of superlatives and the Blues must have gone to Jubilee Park fully confident of keeping up the good form.

That they came away with their tails between their legs was due almost entirely to a superlative goalkeeping performance by Ringwood's Rick Janssen. Caulfield coach Rocco Ille stood open-mouthed as Janssen repelled one shot after another from Caulfield forwards.

"Give him 14 out of 10," he muttered at the end of the game, and there was no doubt who the man of the match was.

Downcast as Ille was, he must have been delighted to learn that Caulfield wasn't going to be punished too harshly for the loss, as the other top four contenders failed to take advantage.

Caulfield meets Oakleigh at Princes Park on Saturday in the game that always attracts a crowd, such is the antipathy between the two clubs.

The clubs have similar histories, in that they both tore through the lower divisions at breakneck speed on their way to the State League, but that is where the similarity has ended.

Caulfield soon established itself as a State League power but Oakleigh, after a miserable first year, just escaped relegation and now finds itself once again facing the chop.

This year the game has added piquancy of course, because Oakleigh now is coached by Takis Sviggos who switched from Caulfield after years of success to the Oaks at the end of last season.

Poor Takis, one of the nicer men in the game, must now be wondering why the hell he did it.

He has tried everything in the last few weeks, including benching his top players like Danny Ward and Alex Livingstone, and last week he took the draconian step of dumping four senior players, Chris Andriotis, Michael Laletas, Peter Vardaxis and Gerry Politis, but it hasn't stopped the rot.

When Oakleigh came back from a goal down after 30 seconds to beat Croydon three weeks ago, it looked as if it might have turned the corner, but it only flattered to deceive. The next week it was back to the same old form, losing at Morwell and then suffering defeat at the hands of Bulleen last week.

To make matters worse, Oakleigh's most expensive purchase of them all, Ally Dick, has been unable to recover quickly enough from his knee operation and now his transfer to Fawkner is off and even his playing future is in jeopardy.

About the only bright spot at Oakleigh is the fact that the committee is still behind Sviggos.

Its president, Manny Tsirakis, was quoted at the weekend as saying that the club wasn't interested in replacing Takis.

In a round when the strugglers had their day, another praiseworthy performance came from Western Suburbs, which lifted itself off the bottom with a good win at Thomastown.

West's have a local derby this week with inconsistent Maribyrnong and must fancy their chance of picking up another point to help them to inch their way to safety. Jimmy McIntyre has a squad of only 14 players at Raleigh Reserve and he says that, apart from his lack of options, his main problem is his team's inconsistency.

"One week they play like men possessed and the next week they go back to playing Santa Claus, with gift goals all round," he says.

But it is in Maribyrnong's favour that alone of the bottom eight, all of the park but there won't be too much comradeship during this Saturday's encounter, well, not until afterwards, anyway.

Wee Bobby would be quite entitled to a satisfied smirk or two the way things are going at the moment.

Falcons are the form team of the moment, having picked up 10 points out of 12 in the last six rounds, which is remarkably consistent for a team that didn't win a game until the sixth round.

State League Preview By BRIAN JAMES

whom must be in jeopardy, it has a plus goal difference, and when it comes to the crunch that could prove a life-saver.

One coach whose club is in Reilly's cellar but who still wears an unworried look is Gus MacLeod.

The reason is that after this Saturday, when it takes on the formidable Morwell Falcons down in the Valley, Springvale has six successive home fixtures. That's not because the fixtures committee has been especially benevolent towards the Vale, but because it was forced to play its first five games away from home, due to work being carried out on the ground.

Springvale should have been amongst the winners last Sunday when it had Croydon's 10 men on the ropes, but missed a penalty.

Now it's all very well to let your goalkeeper take the penalties, but what contingency plans has Gus MacLeod in mind for those times when Dennis Boland hits the post and the opponents break away in full cry towards Dennis' goal?

It nearly came to that last week, when his spot-kick hit the post and rebounded into the other before being cleared. MacLeod is one of our more astute coaches, there has to be some strategy behind it all.

Morwell Falcons coach Bobby McLachlan and MacLeod are friends off

That record would have been even better if Morwell hadn't been robbed of a point at Heidelberg by a refereeing blunder, but then that's a cross we all have to bear, isn't it?

It's to be hoped that the Morwell v. Springvale match gets the referee it deserves because there'll be some physical encounters and no beg pardons between these two.

Fawkner, having lost interest in buying the injured Ally Dick is casting around for further reinforcements in the shape of Tony Curcio, Zjelko Govic and Peter Murphy, all available at Melbourne Croatia.

Where Murphy is concerned, though, it might be a case of join the queue. Since Croatia put the former Perth striker on the transfer list, he has become the hottest property around.

Mike Lynn incidentally, is a little hot under the collar that his club has been saddled with the tag of big-spender and elsewhere in this issue he explains why.

Meanwhile, his last two purchases, Eddie Campbell and Scott Fraser are starting to pay their way and we might be having to refer to Fawkner as one of the big improvers shortly after the good win at Northcote last week.

Fawkner should make it back to back wins against Ringwood this week, notwithstanding Janssen's excellent 'keeping.

Leader Heidelberg gave its pursuers some hope by floundering last week against Maribyrnong and faces a determined Box Hill this week without Claude Lucchesi who was sent off.

Let's hope that the council workers' strike has ended so that they can get the heavy roller on that bog of a pitch at the Olympic Village.

As it is at the moment you could give for the Heidelberg lads for wishing they could play every game at say, Princes Park.

St Albans is hanging in there, just behind Heidelberg, but its consistency is a worry to coach Tony Vrzina.

Only a few weeks ago, his star player Ivan Duzel, was threatening to run away with the Ansett award and looked like topping the goalscorers' list too. But he's gone off the boil it seems, with only one win in the last four games. It won't find Bulleen easy on Saturday, either.

The Bulleen boys showed last week that they were starting to believe in themselves, and in Jimmy Rooney they have a coach whom they know will stand by them.

Finally, can Croydon get back on the winning track after dropping four points out of the last six? It faces a tough one this week, in the shape of Thomastown which could be bouncing back after last week's shock defeat. Watch out for Kevin Rogers, Miron!

This weekend's games, with likely winners in capitals (thank God I don't have to tip for a living).

SATURDAY: CAULFIELD CITY v Oakleigh at Princes Park, BULLEEN v St Albans at Veneto Club, MORWELL FALCONS v Springvale City at North Crnigan Reserve.

SUNDAY: Western Suburbs v Maribyrnong (draw) at Ralph Reserve, HEIDELBERG v Box Hill at Olympic Village, GREEN GULLY v Northcote City at Gully Reserve, FAWKNER v Ringwood City at Smith Reserve, Croydon City v Thomastown (draw) at Town Park.

INDUSTRIAL LEAGUE ROUND-UP

MANSFIELD BUNNEY SPONSORSHIP A BIG COUP

THE answer, is of course is that they are our major sponsors for 1988-and we hope beyond that.

Accepting the cheque for $10,000 from joint Managing Directors Rick Mansfield and Peter Bunney, League president Barry Horsfall stressed how important sponsorship was to amateur sporting bodies in today's environment.

The League is in transition, he said and it was even now planning to lay the foundations for a much larger and far more competitive organisation.

He added that the League was particularly looking forward to playing its part in the overall restructuring and advancement of Victorian soccer.

ROWEVILLE United sprang the surprise of the day in downing the powerful Altona Ilinden combination and in the process earning themselves a place in the last 16. But their win was not without its moments of drama.

Despite a continuing end-to-end struggle, neither team was able to score until, at the 64th minute, Ilinden's Strebe Angelevski capped off a sparkling 50 metre run down the right win with a pin-point cross which found Nat Little who had no difficulty in slotting home the first goal of the match. Things looked black for Rowville.

A goal-mouth melee at the 82nd minute brought the game back to life, when a half clearance rebounded to the feet of Rowville's Caesar Santo, who said thank you very much and rammed in the equaliser. The remaining minutes were unproductive, as were the 30 minutes of extra time, so it was down to kicks from the penalty spot.

After eight shots apiece, it was 4-all. Then Rowville missed. Seemingly the game was all over, but the Rowville keeper guessed correctly, and parried Ilinden next attempt. In the sudden-death shoot-out, Rowville had the better of it, to finish winners 6-5 on penalties.

This was a hard-fought and very physical game, with neither side asking or giving any quarter. Despite the overall inability of either side to trouble the scorers, it was a most entertaining match, including many passages of good football.

Ilinden were only one of three First Division sides stretched to the limit by lower ranked opponents. Like Altona Ilinden, ANZ Bank struck a Division 2A side and was unable to stem the onslaught. A Windsor combination which has been running hot of late poured on the power, and came away 4-0 winners.

Over at Hampton Park, Third Division St Albans Wanderers fought ever inch of the way. The powerful Hampton Park combination, which has been in sparkling League form lately, was stunned by the determination of its visitors and twice had to come from behind before completing the first 90 minutes with a 2-2 scoreline. Extra time produced no change, but the slightly more experienced Hampton Park players out-scored St Albans Wanderers 4-1 in the penalty "shoot-out".

Among First Division clubs which found life a little easier, were Highpoint, who accounted for Bowater 6-2; Middle Park, which had the better of Dandy Dynamo in a 3-1 result; and St Albans Dynamo, which swamped Fourth Division Embassy Taxis 8-0.

Other Second Division winners were Youth United who took out Coomoora Spiders 5-3; Preston Pythons, which blitzed Kew Deaf 6-1; Berwick United, 3-0 winners over Westall P.I.P.A.; Montrose and Fibremakers, who accounted for Sunbury 3-0, respectively.

The Fibremakers result was somewhat of a surprise, as Thomastown United has been playing extremely well and was widely tipped to move into the third round. But on the day, the Fibremakers combination was simply too strong for Thomastown, and out-ran, out-thought and out-shot their opponents most convincingly. The day produced a double-blow for Thomastown United for, as we shall see later, its Reserves also failed to capitalise on a home-ground advantage.

Third Division clubs fared poorly on the day, with Bowater — which had accounted for First Division Apollo United in the first round, and Northern Cross St Helena — which had surprisingly upset the highly-talented Flamingo, both losing.

From Division 3 West, Tottenham and Altona Ilinden had the better of the shoot-out, Tottenham in particular being devastating in their 6-0 annihilation of Northern Cross St Helena. From 3 East, the Division leader Dallas, was relatively untroubled in accounting for a brave Whittlesea 6-2.

It remains to be seen whether the luck of the draw, or merit, will be the deciding factor for any of these three clubs proceeding to the quarter-finals.

RAAF College is flying solo, as the only remaining representative of Division 4. This talented club is capable, when at full strength, of playing in much higher company. It would be no surprise to see it survive the next round.

In the Mansfield Bunney Invitation Cup, we are down to the last eight. The quarter finals to be played on July 3 seem certain to produce some cracker-jack games. Among the winners this round were Glenroy Doxa which, up to and including 1986, had won the Cup six times on the trot, current cup holder Altona Ilinden, and 1987 finalists, Highpoint.

Meanwhile, Middle Park and Footscray United loom as major threats to the Big Three, while Swinburne, Kings Park Heights and Apollo are capable of beating anyone on their day.

Of the eight matches played in this round, three were decided on "penalties". After a scoreless battle, Altona Ilinden had the better of Australian Airlines 4-2 on the spot kicks, while after a 1-1 struggle against Preston Pythons, Apollo United — slightly the steadier in the shoot-out netted all five of their attempts, while saving one of their opponents.

Over at Kings Park Heights, full-time also produced a 0-0 scoreline. We are not quite sure whether our correspondent at that match is having us on, but he assures us that both Kings Park Heights and North Dandenong Sparrows each missed all five of their respective first round of kicks from the spot. In the sudden-death sequence, Kings Park Heights had the better of the Sparrows, running out a 3-2 winner. There was absolutely no doubt in the collective mind of Footscray United, as it demolished Second Division visitor, Dandenong United, 5-1. This side seems to have struck form of late and looks increasingly a finalist prospect.

We would not have thought that Swinburne would have survived the Latin magic of Springvale Eagles, but, having made the long trip down south, the students set about their task in determined fashion and thoroughly deserved their 2-0 win.

Middle Park, meanwhile, were impressive in accounting for Thomastown United 2-1; Highpoint showed a welcome return to form in downing Hampton Park 2-0; and Glenroy Doxa had sweet revenge for last week's League defeat when it accounted for St Albans Dynamo 2-1.

REP SQUAD TRAINING

THIS week's session is at the Coomoora Reserve, Coomoora Road, Springvale South (Melway 88-06) on WEDNESDAY, 1st June. All players on the ground as close as possible to 6.30 pm.

VICTORIAN LEAGUE Division One

Nunawading City 1 Albion 0
NUNAWADING: G. Sullivan, C. Calafiore, J. Samtoy, C. Barker, J. O'Reilly, P. Chiaravalle, A. Christidis, D. Azzopardi, (S. Randazzo-77), T. Neal, I. Greener, K. Taylor.

ALBION: E. Toth, F. Binyazar, M. Durdevic, T. Dimovski, M. Oblak, G. Nedelkovski, T. Latif, B. Johnson, A. Pat-saman, L. Barjaktarevic, O. Latif.

ALBION had more of the game territorially but some stout defence from Nunawading earned the club its fifth victory in the last five games. The visitors had many opportunities, particularly in the first half, but the only goal came in the 27th minute.

A left wing corner from Ian Greener was missed by a defender at the near post and David Azzopardi slipped the ball past Toth from close range. Just before this Sullivan had made a fine save from Ossie Latif and then Patsaman headed over.

After the goal there were two incredible goalmouth scrambles as Albion strived for the equaliser. O'Reilly and Calafiore headed off the line and defenders frantically threw bodies in the way of the ball.

In the second half, Albion continued to press but they created fewer clear cut chances. Jim O'Reilly typified the Nunawading spirit as he played the last 20 minutes with a nasty gash on his forehead.

Division Two
Yarraville 0, Doncaster Rovers 1
YARRAVILLE: C. Barbakos, T. Stahtiaris, J. Tsolakis, A. Tasomino, J. Kostopoulos, N. Apostolakis, J. Batista-Toro, G. Kotsanis, E. Kasapis, S. Didisopoulos, S. Famridas, P. Panagopoulos.

DONCASTER: H. Graham, J. Pucovski, M. Sowards, N. Skinner, M. Tsambikos, P. Brennan, R. Tolmie, N. Fernandes, J. Twine, P. Spicer, G. Talia, G. Rankin, G. Malliaros.

A classy goal in the 75th minute by Rovers' Neil Skinner capped off a first-class performance against former league leaders Yarraville.

It was all Yarraville in the first 20 minutes with Didisopoulos, Tora and Kotsamis filling the starrng roles. Didisopoulos had two certain goals saved by rovers keeper Graham.

Doncaster broke out of its seige and attacked the Yarraville goal with a shot hitting the crossbar from Twine and a certain goal miss-kicked by Pucovski in the six metre box.

Doncaster defence, growing more confident by the minute, started to push up with Sowards and Brennan harrassing the Yarraville defence with their wide runs. Six minutes to half time Spicer seized on a long ball and out ran Tasomino but the shot ran wide of the empty goal and nearly went ahead through Sowards, who ghosted behind the Yarraville defence to have his perfectly controlled shot brilliantly saved by Barbaicos.

Rovers broke the deadlock in the 75th minute with a well-placed kick by Tolmie to Skinner, who rifled the ball into the Yarraville goal.

Yarraville started the push for a equaliser but were constantly caught out with counter attacks by the Rovers.

Division Four
Rosanna 7 Boronia 1
ROSANNA: M. Bartasa, G. McGinn, B. Yearsley, T. Mooney, Stewart, Blair, P. Skoullis, G. Staples, J. Sampson, M. Drake, E. Gray, M. Welsby, R. Devlin, S. Di Marco.

BORONIA: S. Robins, C. Langdon (caution), G. Hobson, Dino Milosevic, K. White, D. Tattersall, G. Groenewald, D. Bain, P. Strahan, G. Radcliffe, W. Groenewald, D. Fisher, J. Forbes.

AFTER a series of draws and one-goal losses, Rosanna triumphed with a resounding 7-1 win over a Boronia defence which was very slow against a slick and quick combination.

After a week's lay-off Diamond Valley United roared back into action but only a squagmire of a pitch and some desperate defensive play by the home team kept United's forwards at Bay.

United welcomed the return of Mick Hodgson after a lengthy lay off through injury and he did enough to suggest that, when he gets match fit, he will form a formidable combination with Coyle and Kelly.

With Tucker winning everything in midfield he was able to set up attack after attack. But again the atrocious condition of the ground proved United's stumbling block.

United found themselves a goal behind at the break when a long clearance from Malvern's defence found Triantafizidis, who beat Hamilton.

The second half was similar to the first with United having all the play but unable to score. But this was rectified when Coyle cut in from the right and Dallas scored from 10 metres.

The goal really spurred United on and with Flaherty becoming more prominent on the right the home defence was working overtime. With 20 minutes left, Dallas broke from midfield to send Flaherty clear on the right and his cross was met by Hodgson to put United 2-1 up. A fine effort by United which was also enough to put them back on top of the league. Best for United were Tucker, Litchfield and Kerr.

Division One
Clayton 3 Melton 1
CLAYTON: C. Szabo, B. Potiris, A. D'Angelo, P. Smith, M. Broxham, J. D'Angelo, G. Di Iorio, M. Wells, R. Ruffolo, C. Riccioni, S. Bastasin, J. Calenda, R. Conti.

MELTON: R. Fuller, N. Maribymong, G. Serdaris, J. Sendra, G. Haynes, S. Klain, S. Deluca, B. Farmer, A. Lee, D. Smallman, J. Sweeney, A. Constantinou, E. Florence.

FOR the first time for a number of weeks, Clayton players combined together to show the form that they are capable of.

Clayton pressurised Melton from the start and at the 12 minute mark Central defender Smith headed home a corner to put Clayton into the lead.

At the 15 minute mark Potiris, for Clayton, handed the ball in the penalty area and Smallman for Melton equalised. Strong tackling by Melton produced two yellow cards and A. D'Angelo went off at half time with an injured shoulder.

Clayton continued to pressure Melton's defence and at the 58 minute mark Bastasin put Clayton back in the lead with a well-directed shot from 12 metres out.

Substitute J. Calenda had two shots in succession at goal but they were well saved by keeper Fuller. Five minutes before the end Wells sent a great cross into the box to allow Calenda to head home Clayton's thump goal and produce a good away win.

Best: Clayton-Broxham, Smith, Wells, Bastas, Melton-Klain, Farmer, Leg. Haynes.

SOUTH DANDENONG: S. Fux, R. Lumani, H. Schaffer, M. Jusic, J. Elmazovski, Y. Gonullu, S. Memedovski (K. Craven-45), S. Elmazovski, S. Yildirim, H. Sepetci, H. Fasal.

SOCCER STAR, THURSDAY JUNE 2, 1988 — Page 11

Riversdale keeper L. Walmaggia, allowed them some chance until an unmarked P. Henderson easily headed Riversdale's third and final goal. This result moves Riversdale within one point of the league leaders, with a game in hand and identical goal difference. Riversdale's best player was R. McPhee, for the second time this season.

But a 47th minute penalty, twice parried by goal direct from a free kick by coach D. Dixon and one from substitute A. Forsyth, in his '88 season debut, in the 40th minute should have put the game beyond Debnay Park's reach.

On the day, most teams would have been hard pressed to stay in the race with the home side. The hapless Carrum who, to their credit, never gave up, had no answer to the skill, team-work and commitment shown by South Dandenong. Four-goal Sepetci was the hero of the day but nothing should distract from the able backing of his skipper, Gonullu, and the rest of the team. Had Carrum taken their chances in the first half, the game might have taken a different turn but, once into gear, South Dandenong dictated terms.

Even the muddy surface proved to be an ally on several occasions and to their ball players this was a bonus.
